

Success Cases

SECURE COMMUNICATIONS

A multinational telecommunication company required its unified communication multi-platform application, to comply with the Federal Information Processing Standards (FIPS) requirements.

This standard allows the use of the solution within U.S. government agencies and by government contractors. A cryptographic security standard module was added on Windows and Android apps.

Tools

Customer

Unified Communications
Fortune 500 Company

Tech Group

Multiscreen Development